Catarrh.

To those who are afflicted with any of the different forms of Catarrh we would say, there is no disease which presents a greater diversity of symptoms, none more loathsome, insidious and dangerous than Nasal Catarrh, especially if complicated, as it almost always is, even from its first appearance, with an affection of the throat.

From the earliest symptoms (which are generally attributed to "a cold in the head") to the various ugly and distressing stages through which the disease passes, the patient is hopeful of recovery, and rarely gives it proper attention until certain alarming symptoms present themselves, denoting unmistakably the rapid advance of the malady to the lungs. Indeed, so various are the symptoms that the presence of the disease is not always known, or even suspected, till it has reached a stage difficult to arrest. The disease may or may not be attended by a discharge from the nostrils or throat; but there is usually present a sensation of heaviness in the frontal part of the head, and the brain sometimes suffers to an extent producing headache, vertigo and confusion; it becomes difficult to think clearly, and to concentrate the mind; the memory becomes impaired and the intellect enfeebled; despondency of spirits and an excitable condition of the nervous system. Such is the effect of the disease, and if to this train of symptoms (which not unfrequently leads to insanity or idiocy) we add many of the more loathsome physical effects, as caries, or rottenness of the bones of the face and head, a most offensive smell to the breath, and corrupt, morbid and poisonous secretions, destruction or serious injury to the senses of smell, hearing, sight and taste, we have a catalogue of horrors which should lend any person to make early and proper efforts to eradicate the disease from the system. Every case of Catarrh is curable if properly treated.

The Times.

Office—Temple, Main and New High.

THE British ministry yesterday escaped censure, at the hands of Parliament, "by the skin of its teeth." It sustained a moral defeat on the Soudan issue.

THE Los Angeles Assemblymen have generally been found voting on the side of the irrigationists and against the riparianists, thereby doing the will of their constituents.

THERE is an American colony in Rome, an American colony in London, an American colony in Paris and one in Berlin. There should be an effort made to establish an American colony in New York city.

CLEVELAND has sent a square-toed reply to the silver Congressmen of his party, to the number of one hundred, in which he takes strong ground in favor of the suspension of silver coinage. The letter will be found in our dispatches.

THE Mugwumps are objecting to "Dan" Manning as Cleveland's Secretary of the Treasury. They think he is too much of a machine politician. They should have thought of this before—last fall, for instance, when they were working shoulder to shoulder with the Albany boss to elect Cleveland. Then he was good enough for George William Curtis and his assistant Democrats. Why can't they swallow him now?

REPRESENTATIVE ROSECRANS is sharply attacked by the San Francisco Post for his apathy and inefficiency in regard to the bill for the construction of a new postoffice building in San Francisco. He had an arrangement with the Speaker for recognition on a fixed day, ostensibly for the purpose of calling up the bill, but Washington reports now say that he will employ the opportunity for another purpose. While Rosecrans should have been employing himself in the work of his constituents, he appears to have been trying to "get even" with General Grant.

THE Medical Record, which generally speaks on reliable information, assures the public that General Grant's illness has taken a favorable turn and that no further apprehensions need be felt. His trouble, it says, was undoubtedly due, in large measure, to immoderate indulgence in smoking. Fortunately, the evil consequences were arrested in time and a cure is said to be effected.

The above was first written and printed a few weeks ago. It would be a happy fact if it were strictly true, but, unfortunately, a dispatch printed in the TIMES this morning again gives a discouraging view of General Grant's case.

A Promising Mine at Elsinore.

Elsinore News.]

The assay of the new Elsinore mine was received from the San Francisco mint on Friday morning, and the result is, gold $6.25, silver $7 per ton, and five per cent. copper—making a total of about $40 per ton. Considering the vast amount of this ore in sight, the prospects are very flattering. The ledge is over a half mile in width. Considerable excitement exists in our little city, and many locations are being made in the vicinity of the new mine. A large party left Tuesday to survey a road to the mines.

The Damson Plum.

San Francisco Chronicle.]

W. J. Kingsbury, the London agent for the Central and Southern Pacific Railway companies, has informed the San Francisco Merchant that the skin of the damson plum, separated from the fruit, is worth $50 a basket in England, as a valuable blue dye is extracted from it, superior to any other, and particularly useful in dyeing silk and staining glass. The damson is at home in this State and our fruit growers should take the hint.

General Sherman, it is alleged, has sent for a map of Iceland because he has heard that custom compels a man in that country to kiss every woman he meets.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RIOTS.

Considerable Disturbance but No Bloodshed.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 27.—The riotous scenes in the Kensington carpet and mill district were repeated to-night. The crowd of spectators which before has never exceeded five thousand people was increased to ten thousand to-night. The mayor had determined to break up the riots and nearly five hundred officers were sent to the scene of the disturbance. Mayor Smith and Chief of Police Stewart were both present when the first detail of officers arrived at the mill. They found the street literally packed with people. After other detachments arrived, a double line was formed, and working each way they forced the crowd back for a square on each side of the mill. As the detail was being posted at each end of the street, a crowd of men broke through the line and attempted to reach the mill door through which Cameron, the loom-fixer, was expected to come. The police with drawn clubs charged on the crowd, and succeeded in forcing them back beyond the lines. During this encounter many persons were clubbed, and five arrests made. Five special officers in citizens dress drew up to the mill, and Cameron, running quickly down the steps, mingled with them. They sauntered down Howard street with Cameron a short distance ahead, their object being to deceive the crowds. They were successful only so far as the police were concerned, for when the line of policemen at Dauplim street was reached several officers rushed upon the specials and their charge and were about clubbing them back when they succeeded in making themselves known. When Cameron and his escort reached Otis street, the crowd was so dense that the police patrol wagon had to be driven down to open the passage-way. Several snow-balls were thrown during the march to Cameron's house, but the loom-fixer was escorted to the house without further molestation. Trouble was expected at Joseph Taylor's, where two non-union hands are working, and one hundred officers were posted there. A large crowd gathered but there was no disturbance.

A Horrible Crime.

GALVESTON, Feb. 27.—The News Marshall special says: Ann Begon, a negro woman who was seriously burned Sunday night, died to-day. In her dying statement she charged her husband, Abe Begon, with pouring oil over her clothing and setting them on fire. Her husband has fled.

WASHINGTON.

Cleveland's Letter on the Silver Question.

HE IS DEAD AGAINST SILVER COINAGE.

Hendricks Arrives in Washington and Meets with a Hearty Reception—Cleveland's Cabinet—Proceedings of Congress.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 27.—The following is the reply addressed by Cleveland to the silver coinage advocates in Congress:

To Hon. A. J. Warner and other Members of the Forty-eighth Congress—GENTLEMEN: A letter which I have had the honor to receive from you invites and indeed obliges me to give expression to some grave public necessities. Although in advance of the moment when they would become objects of my official care and partial responsibility, your solicitude that my judgment shall have been carefully and deliberately formed is entirely just, and I accept the suggestion in the same friendly spirit in which it has been made. It is also fully justified by the nature of the financial crisis which, under the operation of the Act of Congress of February 28th, 1878, is now close at hand. By compliance with the requirements of that law all the vaults of the Federal Treasury have been and are heaped full of silver coins which are now more worthless than the 85 per cent. gold dollar prescribed as the unit of value in Section 14 of the Act of February 12th, 1873, and which, with silver certificates representing such coin, are receivable for all public dues. Being thus receivable while also constantly increasing in quantity at the rate of $28,000,000 a year, it has followed of necessity that the flow of gold into the Treasury has been steadily diminished. Silver and silver certificates have displaced and are now displacing gold, and the sum of gold in the Federal treasury now available for the payment of the gold obligations of the United States and for the redemption of U. S. notes, called greenbacks, if not already encroached upon, is perilously near such encroachment. These are facts which, as they do not admit of difference of opinion, call for no argument. They have been forewarned to us in the official reports of every Secretary of the Treasury from 1870 till now. They are plainly affirmed in the last December report of the present Secretary of the Treasury to the Speaker of the present House of Representatives. They appear in the official documents of this Congress and in the records of the New York Clearings House, of which the Treasury is a member, and through which the bulk of the receipts and payments of the Federal Government and country pass. These being the facts, our present condition, our danger, and our duty to avoid that danger, would seem to be plain. I hope you concur with me and with the great majority of our fellow-citizens in deeming it most desirable at the present juncture to maintain and continue to use the mass of gold coin as well as the mass of silver already coined. This is possible by the present suspension of the purchase and coinage of silver. I am not aware that any other method is possible. It is of momentous importance to prevent the two metals from parting company; to prevent the increasing displacement of gold by the increasing coinage of silver; to prevent the disuse of gold at the custom-houses of the United States in the daily business of the people; to prevent the ultimate expulsion of gold by silver. Such a financial crisis as these events would certainly precipitate, were it now to follow upon so long a period of commercial depression, would involve the people of every city and every State in the Union in prolonged and disastrous trouble. The revival of business enterprise and prosperity, so ardently desired and apparently so near, would be hopelessly postponed; gold would be withdrawn to its hoarding places and unprecedented contraction in the actual volume of our currency would speedily take place. Saddest of all, in every workshop, mill, factory, store, and on every railroad and farm, wages of labor, already depressed, would suffer still further depression by the scaling down of the purchasing power of every so-called dollar paid into the hand of toil. From these impending calamities it is surely the most patriotic and grateful duty of the representatives of the people to deliver them. I am, gentlemen, with sincere respect, your fellow citizen,

Albany, Feb. 24. GROVER CLEVELAND.

THE SIGNAL SERVICE.

No Assistant Chief Signal Officer is Needed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Senate bill introduced by Dawes to create the office of Assistant Chief Signal Officer, the design of which was to provide for the promotion of Lieutenant Greely, having been referred by the Military Committee to the Secretary of War, the latter has made a reply in which he gives his views on the Signal Service generally. He says the bill is a further step towards the comprehensive military organization of the establishment, of which there is no military need. By various steps a Signal Service force of enlisted men has been authorized, which now, under the law, consists of 500, of whom 130 are Sergeants and Corporals. Of this force about 175 are on constant duty in this city as clerks, printers, etc., the remainder, excepting a few telegraphers, are isolated observers of the weather. It is an assemblage of military and civil officers and employes, all performing civil duties, and I would see with regret any further step toward the preventing of an establishment so organized becoming in time purely civil in its organization. A military organization seems to be entirely inconsistent with our policy in such matters. By far the largest part of its clerical force in the city of Washington are called "enlisted men" and are so treated by the law, and they enter the service by the personal selection of its chief or his immediate subordinates; but they perform the same functions as clerks in any other bureau of the War Department, and discharge duties which in all other departments are performed by men certified to by the Civil Service Commission, under the law and regulations of the President. This is an anomaly, for the existence of which no good reason is apparent.

CLEVELAND'S CABINET.

Garland Attorney-General. Bayard Secretary of State.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Star says: It is stated to-day upon unquestioned authority that Senator Garland yesterday received a letter formally inviting him to accept the portfolio of the Department of Justice, and the Senator mailed his acceptance. While no doubt has been entertained that Garland would be appointed, it appears that the formal tender of the position did not reach him until yesterday.

BAYARD FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.

WILMINGTON, Del., Feb. 27.—Every Evening publishes a statement on entirely trustworthy authority that Senator Bayard will enter Cleveland's Cabinet as Secretary of State, and will forward his resignation as Senator to the Legislature on Wednesday.

HENDRICKS.

The Vice-President-elect Arrives in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Vice-President-elect arrived in Washington this afternoon on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and was met by an assembly of several hundred persons. The Democratic members of Congress from Indiana, except Senator Voorhees, who was detained at the Senate, and Judge Holman, who could not leave the House, were present as members of the Indiana Democratic Association. As soon as the Vice-President-elect was recognized many spectators on the platform removed their hats and applauded him as he pushed on toward the carriage, down the platform and through the waiting room to the street. The applause grew until, as he reached the pavement, it broke into enthusiastic cheering, to which Mr. Hendricks responded by raising his hat and bowing. The committee escorted him to the carriage, but here the crowd surged about the vehicle and prevented it from being driven off, while a score or more shook hands with Mr. Hendricks. As the driver finally whipped up his horses and drove off to the hotel the crowd cheered enthusiastically. The Vice-President-elect was accompanied by several gentlemen from Indiana and the ladies of his family.

Hendricks Holds a Reception.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Hendricks held an informal reception in his rooms at the hotel this evening, a large number of persons calling to pay their respects.

The Fortification Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The Fortification bill reported in the House provides an appropriation of $9,555,000. Of this sum, $500,000 is recommended for the expenses of the board which shall examine and report the points at which the defenses are most urgently required. The sum of $450,000 is recommended for the expense of the board which shall examine and report points at which defenses are most urgently required. The sum of $450,000 is recommended for the purchase and test of various machine guns now in use and for the armament of sea coast fortifications. Inducements are offered manufacturers to produce a sample breech-loading rifled cannon, twelve-inch calibre, and whoever shall first produce any such tested and accepted cannon shall have such gun received and paid for at a fair and reasonable cost by the Secretary of War, who, moreover, shall contract with the producer to furnish within one year thereafter fifty such guns and one hundred projectiles standard therefor for each gun, the price to be paid for the guns not to exceed fifty cents a pound, and for projectiles not to exceed ten cents a pound.

Survey for the Nicaraguan Canal.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Civil engineer Menocal, in charge of the expedition to survey the route of the proposed Nicaraguan canal, reports to the Navy Department, under date of San Juan river, January 31, the arrival of his party there on the 22d of January, a camp being established near the junction of the San Juan and Serapiqui rivers. Some objection was offered by the officials of the Costa Rican government to his making any surveys within the Costa Rican territory without further instructions from the government. A special messenger was sent to San Jose for instructions. In the meantime the survey began at the left margin of the San Juan river was carried to the other side. Menocal made a careful examination of that river and the other tributaries for several miles above its month, which satisfied him of the impossibility of raising the waters of that river for the canal by a dam at that point. The survey is being prosecuted with encouraging signs of success.

Decision Revoked.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Secretary of the Interior has revoked the circular of October 23d last, issued by the Commissioner of the Land Office, refusing to allow the amendment of pre-emption filings and homestead and timber culture applications.

FORTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The consideration of the Navy bill was continued. In the discussion of the bill McPherson favored the building of larger cruisers than are provided for, and on suggestion of Miller of California, without objection by Hale, the limit of the maximum tonnage for the two new cruisers recommended by the Senate Committee was made five thousand instead of four thousand tons. The amendment offered by Hale was agreed to, appropriating $112,000 for the purchase of Ericsson's torpedo boat "Destroyer." With this exception, the bill passed substantially as reported from the Senate Committee on Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The regular legislative business was proceeded with. Cameron of Wisconsin moved to resume consideration of the House bill limiting the time for the presentation of claims against the United States.

Morrill called for the regular order, it being the Trade Dollar bill. Morrill said that, after the demonstrations made elsewhere, there was no probability that the section repealing the standard dollar coinage act would become a law. He thought, therefore, it would be well to take a vote on that section without debate, and then the Senate could dispose of the Trade Dollar bill as it might choose.

Cameron's motion was agreed to—yeas 34, nays 21.

Van Wyck obtained unanimous consent that the Claims bill be temporarily laid aside to take up the Pension bill originating in the Senate and favorably reported from the committee. The bills favorably reported were then taken up in order. Bills were passed granting a pension of $50 a month to the widow of General Benjamin Alvord, $50 a month to the widow of Commodore Dana Greene, of the United States Navy, $30 a month to the widow of Commodore Moreland, of the United States Navy, and increasing from $30 to $50 per month the pension of General Charles H. Morgan.

The message, announcing the disagreement on the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill was laid before the Senate, which insisted on its amendments and conferences were appointed.

The House substitute for the River and Harbor bill, appropriating $5,000,000, was laid before the Senate, and having been read once, Cameron of Wisconsin objected to its second reading, so it lies on the table, not having been referred to the committee.

Morgan asked unanimous consent to take up the bill for the relief of Letitia Tyler, the single daughter of the late President Tyler. The bill would give her a pension of $50 per month. The lady named, Morgan said, is now blind and dependent on charity in the city of Washington. Riddleberger and Cockrell objected. A vote on the bill resulted—yeas 11, nays 17. No quorum having voted, no decision was reached.

House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—In the regular order of business the House proceeded to the further consideration of the Sundry Civil bill. Horr offered an amendment providing that the money appropriated to the aid of the New Orleans Exposition shall be used, first, in payment of the indebtedness now outstanding of the Exposition due to persons living outside of Louisiana, including debts to foreigners or foreign nations and such as are due States and Territories; and second, in the payment of all premiums awarded by the Exposition. The amendment was adopted. Ayes, 206; noes, 58.

The bill then passed; yeas, 168; nays, 107.

The Senate amendments to the Legislative Appropriation bill were non-concurred in.

Mr. Willis moved to suspend the rules and put upon its passage the bill appropriating $5,000,000 for the continuation and completion of the works designated in the last River and Harbor law. The bill contains the following provisions:

"That work at the Galveston harbor shall be treated as if the sum of $250,000 had been appropriated by the bill of last year."

Willis briefly explained that it had been thought best not to allow the present works of the Government to go to waste and ruin on account of the lack of appropriations. For this reason he had, after consultation with a number of gentlemen, brought in a bill appropriating $5,000,000, or one-seventh of the amount which the Corps of Engineers had stated could be profitably expended during the ensuing year. The bill was submitted as a compromise, because he knew the discussion of the regular bill would consume valuable time, and might endanger the passage of the other appropriation bills and cause an extra session.

Hiscock and Cannon and others opposed the bill. Cannon said during the course of his remarks: "Last fall the Democratic orators had told the people that at last Democrats were to be at the helm, and now they came in and moved to pass this crude measure under a suspension of the rules, for fear there might be an extra session in March or April; in other words, they feared to trust themselves." The bill was supported by O'Neill, King, Bayne, and others, and the motion agreed to and the bill passed by 190 to 88.

Townshend, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the Postoffice Appropriation bill with the Senate amendments with a report recommending concurrence in some and non-concurrence in other amendments, in order to prevent the calling up of any contested election case. The Republicans demanded a separate vote on each amendment, and though the recommendations of the Appropriation Committee were in each case agreed to (the clause relative to ocean transportation was not reached) they consumed the time till 5 o'clock, when a recess was taken until 8.

The evening session was for the consideration of the pension bills.

The Foreign Affairs Committee to-day authorized Eaton from Connecticut to submit to the House a favorable report upon the Lefevres resolution, calling for retaliatory action for Germany's restrictions upon American products. Eaton takes the ground occupied by the Lefevres resolution that under our treaties with Germany that country has been favored above all nations and that the discrimination against American products was in violation of the spirit of these treaties, and that the situation warrants the action suggested in the resolution.

The House at the evening session passed thirty-six pension bills and adjourned.

Suspension of a Commission House.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 27.—The large commission house of E. Samuel & Son stopped paying margins on wheat this afternoon and announced that they would suspend until they could look into their affairs and ascertain how they stood. They are heavily long on wheat, but say they cannot make a statement of their condition until to-morrow. They owe one firm here about half a million bushels of wheat. It is believed their losses have been very large. The firm is one of the oldest and best known in the city, having been established over forty years and considered very strong. It was not only a large receiver of grain from the country but a heavy exporter, and has always done a large general business. W. M. Samuel, senior of the firm, is one of the best known merchants in the city and at one time was president of the Merchants' Exchange.

The Gladstone Government Barely Escapes Defeat,

The Irish Members Vote Against the Government, the Peace Party Supports It—Comments of the "Times" on the Situation.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Salisbury's motion of censure was adopted by the Lords—189 to 68. Northcote's motion of censure was rejected by the Commons—302 to 288.

The government's majority is fourteen in the division on censure. The motion in the Commons last night has not disappointed the Conservatives. It is the lowest majority the government has ever obtained upon any important question since it entered office. The Conservative vote, which is normally estimated at 245, was increased to 288 by the votes of Goshen and other Whigs and the twenty-four Irish members. The Peace Radicals supported the Government. The excitement became intense toward the end of the debate. When it became known that the section of Whigs and the Parnellites had intended to vote against the Government, the report led a number of hesitating Radicals to vote against censure, thus saving the Government from defeat.

The Times says technically the government escaped defeat but that morally it was defeated, discredited and condemned. It is difficult to believe, the Times continues, that a majority of 14 will endure the strain of heavy votes for the cost of the expedition.

GLADSTONE EXPLAINS TO THE PEACE SOCIETY.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Gladstone, in answer to the protest of the Peace Society against the prosecution of the war in the Soudan, confines himself to a reference to the many acts of Lord Wolseley to induce the hostile Arabs to cease making war. He points the Society to Lord Wolseley's proclamation to show that the Government desired to avoid bloodshed and to establish a native government at Khartoum, and recognize El Mahdi as the Sultan of Kordofan, if he surrendered the Europeans and others prisoners in his possession.

BULLER'S TROOPS—DIVORCE CASE.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—A telegram from Korti announces that General Buller reached Gakdul Wells with his entire force yesterday.

In the divorce suit brought by the young Earl of Durham against his wife (nee Milner) on the ground of insanity, the Archbishop of York to-day deposed that Miss Milner's conversation reached the ordinary standard of intelligence.

PROGRESS OF THE BRITISH TROOPS.

Marine Disaster.

PORT TOWNSEND, W. T., Feb. 27.—The ship Astoria, coal-laden for San Francisco, has drifted on shore near Point Bonillo and between that place and San Juan harbor. A heavy southwest wind setting in, the first mate got a boat out to stand by the ship and the second mate and three men were placed in it, but a heavy sea broke them adrift from the vessel and they were unable to regain her. They were picked up in the straits this morning by the barkentine Griffiths. When they were driven off the Astoria had struck several times on the Pardon Brokerage.

Senator Perry's lame defense in the Senate of the charge made against him of being a professional pardon broker, and of having procured, for the sum of $300 in hand paid, a pardon for Joseph F. Upson, does not exonerate him from the odium that properly attaches to such a discreditable transaction.

The facts of this case are stated to be these: Upson, alias Penton, is the son of a wealthy Cleveland, Ohio, man. The youth was convicted of felony, in having counterfeiters' tools in his possession in September last in San Francisco, and was under sentence of imprisonment in the House of Correction for two years and a half. He was arrested about the 21st of September, 1883, being traced by detectives to a den in Oakland, where a drop press machine, dies and other paraphernalia of the counterfeiter's art were secreted and afterwards seized. He was held by Judge Lawler, on the 15th of October, 1883, to answer in $5000 bail. When the case came up before Judge Ferral in February, 1884, after many continuances, Upson failed to respond, and his cash bail of $2500 was forfeited. In July last he was rearrested in Sacramento, and finally brought to trial on the 18th of last November. Throughout the entire case it was apparent that some influential and money power was back of it, and the verdict of conviction was unexpected. On December 6th Judge Ferral passed sentence on Upson, and twenty days later the prisoner was transferred to the county jail as a "trusty." Upson's people are represented as wealthy, and it is through his father that he has been supplied with money to keep him out of jail pending his trial, and with luxuries while in jail. It is stated that $1,000 was left with G. W. Tyler to appeal for a new trial. Shortly after his incarceration, Upson wrote from the jail to his counsel that he was informed that he could secure his pardon for $600. The fact is that Senator Perry appeared before the Governor as an attorney on behalf of Upson, seeking a pardon. The grounds for the petition were that Upson had suffered double punishment in having forfeited $2500 cash bail and in subsequent sentence to imprisonment, and that he is in ill-health. The plea of ill-health set up in his behalf is, however, denied. The other reasons given are ridiculous and illogical. The naked facts appear to be that Senator Perry, who is one of Chris. Buckley's "lambs," engineered the pardon for cold coin, and that Governor Stoneman, not corruptly, but through his customary and constitutional weakness, granted the pardon. It is furthermore intimated that money was paid to a subordinate in the Secretary of State's office in this case, and that it is not the first case of the kind that has come to light.

Governor Stoneman is represented to have been disgusted and indignant when he learned how the pardon had been procured, and at once gave orders that henceforth all pardons, when granted, should be delivered to the warden of the penitentiary, instead of being given into the hands of the friend or attorney of the pardoned convict. "Locking the stable after the horse is stolen."

Judge Tyler, whose standard of moral and legal ethics is not high, declares that the transaction is disgraceful—"the most infamous thing that I have heard of for a long time"—and we agree with him.

Perry, in his defense before the Senate, denied that he had received any fee, but had the effrontery to declare in the same breath that he expected one. From another source we learn that he demanded his pay in hand before he would deliver the pardon, which he took to San Francisco himself.

It is difficult to determine which is the more flagrant, the weakness of the Governor or the open corruption of this senatorial pardon-broker. Both deserve the execration of honest men.

Sending the County.

The Assembly has finally passed McGlashan's bill for the division of Los Angeles county by the creation of a new county, to be called Orange, out of the southern portion. If this measure is either really necessary or moderately meritorious, the fact has never been shown, and the Senate will do a wise and proper thing if it withholds its approval of the Assembly bill. We have reasons for believing that many members voted for it, not at all upon its merits, or because they had any interest in the division of Los Angeles county or the creation of a new county, but for certain very trivial and insufficient pretexts, which will not bear the test of reason or the light of scrutiny. Sometimes it happens that statesmen, like other and common mortals, do not rise above the unworthy practice of working to "get even" on their fellow men and members, and sometimes it happens that the payment of these debts of revenge works detriment to the public interest. We more than suspect that this will be found to be the case in the present instance.

THE opera house at Huron, Dakota, was destroyed by fire the other day, and the Cardiff giant was burned to a crisp, or at least he was burned down so that his gigantic frame-work of iron was exposed to the gaze of a cruel and unfeeling world. Still there are people who will not lose faith in the Cardiff giant, or in spooks.

A PROBABLE change in the presidency of the State University is rumored. It is stated that Prof. W. T. Reid, the President, will shortly retire, either because he has a more attractive offer in the East, or because of lack of cordial relations between himself and the students and faculty.

ALHAMBRA.

MORE NOTES OF CHANGE AND PROGRESS.
Correspondence of the TIMES.]

ALHAMBRA, Feb. 25.—The Alhambra Band of Hope reorganized on Sunday afternoon at Stanton Hall.

Mr. White, of Adel, Iowa, is visiting his son, Rev. G. W. White, at the M. E. Parsonage.

Messrs. James Wayne and C. T. Adams have returned from a trip to Orange and Santa Ana, taking in the ostrich farm on the home-stretch.

Mr. Peter Allen has bought five acres below Mr. Watkins, on Granada avenue.

H. W. Stanton has sold another village lot to Mr. Williams. Mr. Stanton has also sold his house and three acres adjoining his store to a gentleman from near Albany, N. Y., who came here with one of the Phillips excursions. He has gone East to settle up his business, and on his return to Alhambra will put up a wagon shop on his new premises.

A central telephone station will be located at Stanton's store about March 1.

C. T. Adams is building a neat barn on Garfield Avenue.

A short time since, Prof. W. P. Wright sold his place to a party in town, who sold it again last week to a gentleman from Sedalia, Missouri. The last purchaser intends bringing his family here immediately.

The "boom" for which Alhambra has so patiently waited, is here at last. Considerable property has already changed hands, a number of buildings are in progress, and several more will be commenced within the next two weeks. Alhambra now offers excellent openings for a first-class hotel, another boarding house, a laundry, a drug store and a barber shop. There is little or no competition at present, and parties taking advantage of this opportunity would be insured a good business.

LITERARY NOTES.

"The Spectator," the new weekly paper in Boston, is described as a "National Journal of Popular Science, Literature and Art."

Mr. W. M. Griswold has compiled a "Directory of Writers for the Literary Press in the United States," containing 350 names, and published by Q. P. Index, Bangor, Me.

We are not surprised to know that a second edition of Mrs. C. N. Hewins's admirable little brochure, "Books for the Young," is shortly to be issued by the "Publishers' Weekly," New York.

"Queries" is the title of a new monthly review of literature, art, science, and educational matters. Its chief feature is a series of questions on these and cognate subjects. Prizes are offered for the best sets of answers.

The Harpers have completed the publication of Stormonth's "Dictionary of the English Language," and the entire work can now be obtained for less than $6; a marvelously small sum for a dictionary of the great excellence and admirable practical qualities of this work.

Macmillan & Co have added to their low-priced series of "Globe Readings from Standard Authors" Charles Kingsley's charming book of Greek fairy tales, "The Heroes." The book is very attractively printed, costs but thirty cents, and ought to be in the hands of every child in the country.

Senator Bayard's Terrapin.

Washington Star.]

Senator Bayard is famous among the epicures at the National Capital for his skill in preparing terrapin for the table. The Senator always goes into the kitchen and prepares the terrapin with his own hands for his invited guests. He has the knack of imparting a peculiar delicacy and flavor to the dish which none of the professional cooks can imitate. He flavors it so as to render the dish more than usually entrancing to the palate.

FEMININE FANCIES.

Mrs. Blaine is said to be an excellent letter-writer.

Governor Robie, of Maine, believes in woman suffrage.

Miss Nellie Arthur has a fine collection of calendars.

A ladies' fashion journal says that "short gloves wear the longest."

A woman may smile and smile and be unwillin', remarks a rejected suitor.

There are 114,000 school teachers in England, of whom 95 per cent. are spinsters.

Twenty-five per cent. of the young women in the Normal College of New York are bright-eyed Jewesses.

The world does not know how many young ladies anoint their hands with cold cream every night and sleep with kid gloves on.

Blondes are said to be out of fashion. This only applies to poor blondes. If a woman is rich enough she will always be in fashion.

The tall hats worn by the women of to-day are as acorns compared with pumpkins in dimensions to those worn in the time of Marie Antoinette.

The statement that the Boston girls wear spectacles in order to see the point of the Boston young man's small talk has never been successfully disputed.

A Staten Island widow, who has changed her name three times, wrote to a young lady friend: "Never marry a man with a moustache; if you do, he'll think more of the horrid thing than of you."

A clothes observer asserts that if a woman goes to the theater dressed handsomely and newly her criticism of the play is always very flattering, but if the woman next her is dressed still better the result is different.

Here is Your Aristocrat.

Carpenter's Life of Lincoln.]

"On one occasion when Lincoln was present, Taylor, in the midst of a most violent harangue against the Whig aristocrats, made a gesture so forcibly that he tore the buttons off his vest, and the whole magnificence of his ruffles, watch-chain, seals, etc., burst forth, fully exposed. Taylor paused in embarrassment. Lincoln, stepping to the front and turning to Taylor, pointed to his ruffles, and exclaimed, 'Behold the hard-fisted Democrat! Look, gentlemen, at this specimen of the bone and sinew. And here, gentlemen,' said he, laying his great bony hand, bronzed with work, on his own heart, 'here, at your service'—bowing—'here is your aristocrat! Here is one of your silk-stocking gentry!'—spreading out his hands. 'Yes, I suppose,' continued he, 'I, according to my friend Taylor, am a bloated aristocrat.' The contrast was irresistibly ludicrous, and the crowds burst into shouts of laughter and uproar. In this campaign the reputation of Lincoln as a speaker was established, and ever afterwards he was recognized as one of the great orators of the State."

Wonderfully Made.

"Did you ever think how fearfully and wonderfully we are made?" remarked a Hop Hollow minister to an agricultural parishioner on whom he was calling. "At the very outset of the process of absorbing food we meet with a marvelous instance of the wisdom of overevidence. In the throat of every person, vibrating to and fro, is a little thing that separates the solids from the liquids as he eats, so that the one class shall pass down by one path and the other down by another, and there shall be no conflict between them."

"Haw! haw! haw!" roared the farmer.

"I don't see any occasion for levity," the clergyman said frowningly. "'Tis a very serious subject, sir." "I know," returned the farmer, "but I was only thinking how like Jehu that little thing mus go when a feller is eating rice and milk."

Poker Playing Pages.

Sacramento Cor. Stockton Herald.]

The following letter was picked up in the Senate yesterday: "Dear Mother—I have been playing poker with the other pages and got 'left.' That is the reason I only sent you $5. If my luck changes I will send you more next week."

Even the little pages become demoralized in presence of the gambling influences of Sacramento, and four of them are seen to steal away to a hotel room every night, where they stake their earnings at poker, and it is an easy matter to pick out the winner on the following day, for he smokes cigarettes in the lobby and munches French candy.

A Sly Darky.

Texas Siftings.]

"Does you know John Jackson?" asked Jim Webster of Pete Simpson.

"I should say I does know him. He is an awful sly cuss."

"What has he eber done dat was so berry smart?"

"The other day I seed him walking along on the opposite side of Austin avenue. I called out 'John, you John!' two or three times. The niggah made out as if he didn't hear me. I overtuck him and cotched him by de arm, and dang my buttons, if he wasn't anudder niggah entirely. You bet he am a sly one."

Our Opium Eaters.

Inter Ocean Interview.]

Americans constitute about 68 per cent. of the opium-eaters. This may be accounted for in more than one way. The German and Irish find relief from their troubles in the anæsthetic effect of beer or whiskey, while the American prefers an agent whose effects, while equally powerful, do not at first incapacitate him from business. Besides this consideration there is another: Americans, and those foreigners who become Americanized, are more highly neurasthenic, that is, their nervous systems are such that they bear their pain badly and demand relief.

Art Criticism.

Philadelphia Call.]

Critic (who having "liquored up" considerably before visiting the exhibition, fails to observe that he is only in the vestibule, standing before a mirror)—Ah! portrait of gen'leman, I 'shpose (hic)—(writes)—drawing exshe'ble—great want taste in choice 'f subject; fit only for a place in bar-room!

The Shirt Bosom Looks Hard.

Bloomington Through Mail.]

It is now stated that Henry M. Stanley, the great African explorer, wears a swallow-tail coat. We can now understand why he was able to travel among the cannibals for years without being roasted and eaten. No man looks juicy in a swallow-tail coat. It makes him appear old and tough.

Not Always Avarice.

Dr. Talmage.]

There are a great many men who have business burdens. You hear it is avarice that drives them. I don't believe a word of it. The vast multitude of business men are toiling for others, toiling to put a wing of protection over their household so that when they are gone their loved ones will not go to the poor-house.

Why?

Sulphur Springs (Tex.) Enterprise.]

Why is it that the man who whangs an old copper cent in the contribution box generally leans back with a twenty-dollar look of benevolence?

Pity the Sorrows of Poor Old Ben.

Chicago News.]

Will somebody please break in Ben Butler's door and see why he is so quiet? Like enough he has blown out the gas.

Damala, a husband of Sara Bernhardt, has made Paris laugh over a bon mot. Some one remarked that Sarah's lover, Richepin, in fleeing to an Arabian desert, had "jumped from the frying-pan into the fire." Damala replied: "It seems to me that he has only fled from one Sahara to another." This is far-fetched. Sarah may look like a grid-iron or be shaped like a shovel, but those in no frying-pan or fire about her.—[New Orleans Picayune.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Governments, weak, quiet, with exception of registered 4½ per cent's, which are ½ lower at $1.11¾ bid. Various disquieting rumors were in circulation on Wall street at opening of Stock Exchange this morning. Rumors were afloat the past day or two that one of the national banks of this city was in trouble and statements finally took sufficiently definite to locate the bank; also a good deal of talk about failure of silver bill in the House yesterday, and unsettled condition of affairs generally predicted on that account. The stories about Erie's troubles also renewed. Reports regarding bank emphatically denied by some of its officers and directors. Reports in regard to Erie neither confirmed nor denied. Stocks again weak at opening, and with the exception of a moderate reaction in the forenoon; were weak and declining all day. After the remarkable strength displayed in final doings in Lackawanna yesterday, stocks opened this morning 1¼ per cent. lower, and in first fifteen minutes declined another ¾, making a total loss of 1¾ at $1.02¼. The impression rapidly spread through the Board that support had been withdrawn from this stock, but after touching price mentioned it rallied in the forenoon to $1 03¾, and remained comparatively steady till nearly 2 p. m., then persistently declined until sold at $1.01¾; from this point there was a final rally to $1.02¾ and a decline to $1.02 at close. The course of Lackawanna, in which trading amounted to 74,256 shares, indicated the general drift of the market throughout the day. In early transactions St. Paul was also pressed for sale and closed with a decline. Northwestern lowest, 2¾ per cent. Total sales of these three stocks amounted to more than 50 per cent. of the day's business. Reports circulated early in the day that the Omaha Company would pass its next dividend, and before the day was over it was stated that the Board had already acted, and the dividend had been passed. The latter rumor was officially denied by a statement made that the annual meeting of the Company for the declaration of a dividend would not be held until next month. No one was disposed to take the risk of foretelling what would then be done, but stock was extremely weak all day, preferred declining from yesterday. Closing price 4¾. Northern Pacific shows a loss of 1¾ at 17¾ for common, and 1 at 42¾ for preferred. Other declines were less than 1 per cent.

Cost Her Weight in Gold.

Tucson Star.]

Mrs. Jesus Castro, an aged Mexican lady, now residing at American Flag in the Santa Catalina mountains, is now perhaps the only woman who, literally speaking, ever cost her husband her weight in gold. It is said that in the early gold-digging days of California she was a resident of Sonora, in which State she was born and grew to womanhood. When about the age of 17 a paternal uncle, but a few years her senior, returned with his companions, gold-laden, from the El Dorado of the West, and became desperately enamored of her. He sought her hand in marriage and was accepted, but the church refused, because of the near relationship existing between them, to solemnize the marriage. Persuasion being in vain, he tried the power of gold to win the church his way, and succeeded only by the payment of her weight in gold. She at that time weighed 117 pounds, and against her in the scales the glittering dust was shoveled. Her affianced husband still had sufficient of the world's goods to provide a comfortable home, and they were married. The above is a fact and not fiction, as living witnesses can prove.

The Bill to Divide this County Passes the Assembly.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Destructive Fire in Fresno—New Line of Steamers—Robbery of a Postoffice—The Sharon Case.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—In the Senate this morning the Committee on Agriculture made a favorable report upon the Assembly bill providing for eradication of glanders and other diseases among cattle and horses.

Mr. Days moved to take up out of order Lond's bill appropriating $34,419 to reimburse County Treasurers who lost their special deposits through the defalcations of A. D. January. The motion was lost by the following vote: Ayes, 18; noes, 18.

Knight, of the Committee on Hospitals, submitted a report of the visit of the committee to the Orphan Asylums. The committee visited twelve institutions and found them in satisfactory condition. In these places there are 3300 orphans, half orphans and abandoned children, in whose behalf there is annually drawn from the Treasury $200,000.

Baldwin's bill appropriating money to pay the indebtedness incurred by the calling of the State militia to enforce the law in San Joaquin county, was finally passed.

Heath's constitutional amendment then came up for final passage. Lynch moved to again recommit the bill, with instructions to amend so as to increase the tax from 2½ per cent. to 3½ per cent. In support of the motion he submitted statistics showing that the average levied on railroads for five years was $536,213. He said a tax of 3½ per cent. would yield a sum equal to taxes now levied. Recess.

On reassembling, Lynch concluded his speech, and upon a vote being taken on his amendment it was lost by 28 noes, Boone being absent. The ayes were Baldwin, Del Valle, Filcher, Foster, Johnson, Langford, Lynch, Mahler, Reddy and the two Spencers.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—After considerable debate and a long speech by Reddy, roll call on the Heath amendment was called and the bill finally passed by a vote of 32 to 8, as follows: Ayes—Beauvais, Boone, Chandler, Cox, Creighton, Cross, Days, Delany, Dougherty, Drumm, Foster, Hurlburt, Johnson of San Bernardino, Johnson of Sonoma, Kelly, Kellogg, Knight, Lowe, McClure, Palmieri, Parker, Parkinson, Perry, Routier, Saxe, Spencer of Napa, Steele, Taylor, Vrooman, Wallis, Whitney, Wright — 32. Noes—Baldwin, Del Valle, Filcher, Langford, Lynch, Mahler, Reddy, Spencer of Stanislaus—8. It is expected that the Assembly will concur to-morrow in the Senate amendments.

When the irrigation hour arrived Whitney spoke for a few minutes to his amendment to bill No. 410. He proposed to strike out of section 2 the words, "and the laws thereof concerning the appropriation of water for the purposes of irrigation, and to that extent forms no part of such laws, and the use of water for said purposes of irrigation is a public use." This amendment was carried on a division by a vote of 14 to 12. This makes section 2 read as follows: "And that portion of the common law of England which relates to riparian rights is hereby declared to be repugnant to and inconsistent with the climate, topography and physical condition of this State and the necessities of the people thereof." The words stricken out formed the latter half of the original section and carried with them the Cross amendment concerning the right to appropriate water for mining purposes.

At the evening session a number of bills were passed to second reading, among which was a bill to pay the claim of M. Miles for $34,000 for work done on the Folsom Prison.

Adjourned.

Assembly.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 26.—The Assembly met at 10 a. m.

The measure appropriating $25,000 for the holding of the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic was amended to provide for the payment of the money to the managers of the affair as soon as it is evident that it will take place.

The measure by Parks, repealing the Senatorial apportionment bill passed by the last Legislature, was by consent allowed to pass to a third reading, at which time its merits will be discussed.

The measure appropriating $200,000 for the establishment of an additional insane asylum in California was passed to the second reading.

Goucher's bill to amend the constitution by advancing the salaries of the Supreme Court judges from $6,000 to $9,000 a year was read the third time.

Rule, Ward of Butte, and Goucher were appointed a committee of conference to meet with a similar committee to be appointed by the Senate and adjust the differences existing between the houses as to the location of the Branch State Normal School, the Senate desiring the school located in Northern California and the House favoring Shasta county.

The following bills passed: McGlashan's bill to establish the county of Orange out of a portion of Los Angeles County, Hazard giving notice to reconsider. Heath's bill, authorizing the refunding of the county debts as a less rate of interest. McLean's bill, providing that Mayors and Common Councils of cities of less than 10,000 inhabitants shall receive no compensation.

Recess.

After recess the following bills passed: Munday's bill 263, amending sections 764, 771, 773, 788, and repealing section 753 of the Municipal Corporation Act. Weaver's bill, providing for the organization of cities having between 3000 and 10,000 inhabitants into separate school districts. Coleman's bill 195, relating to roads and highways. Allen's bill 502, to promote drainage. The Opium bill, restricting the sale and use of the drug, passed—45 ayes; 25 nays.

Adjourned.

Robbery of the San Rafael Postoffice.

SANTA ROSA, Feb. 27.—Burglars entered the postoffice building here last night, by unscrewing the tops of the bolts which secured the wooden window shutters. A hole was drilled in the door of the small treasure safe, and by a charge of powder the lock was wrecked. One thousand five hundred dollars' worth of postage stamps, eight registered letters and about $30 in coin were taken by the thieves, besides what change there was in the money drawer. Postmaster Hood made the discovery at 5 o'clock this morning when he came to the office to make up the mail for San Francisco. The burglars wet the floor with water, and by other means muffled the sound of the explosion. From appearances, the men seem to have been experienced cracksmen. The police and postal authorities have been notified and the trains watched, but as yet no arrests have been made.

A Destructive Fire at Fresno.

FRESNO, Feb. 27.—About 4 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the rear of Yeargin & Morgan's grocery, on Mariposa street. The building and those adjacent being wood, the fire spread rapidly for half a block. The total loss is $30,000. C. G. Hutchinson, $1000, insured; Lens Crow, furniture, etc., $500, no insurance; Weaver & Dunbar, stoves and hardware, $6000, insurance $3500; Baker & Johnson, general merchandise and building, $13,000, insured for $9000; Olcese & Garibaldi, $500, insured; S. B. Bresee, undertaker, $1800, insured for $500; Mrs. Daly, stationery, $2000, insured for $1000; N. H. Chance, building, $3000, insured for $1900; Prickenerd Bros., market, $400, insured; Herrington, harness, $1500, insured; Yeargin & Morgan, $4000, insured; Waldenberg & Foster, upholstering shop, $250, no insurance.

Progress of the Sharon Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—When the motion to set aside the decree in the Sharon divorce case came up for hearing, O. P. Evans, of the counsel for the defence, stated to the court that since the motion to set aside the findings in the case, on the ground that the court found that secret marriage relations had existed between the parties, which was equivalent to finding that no marriage existed, the case had been appealed to the Supreme Court, and he therefore asked that the motion be dismissed, which was so ordered.

California Mineral Exhibit at New Orleans.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—The collection of minerals of the State Mining Bureau were shipped to-day for exhibition at the New Orleans Exposition. There are in all eighty-seven cases, which include fifty boxes of minerals, twenty-four plate glass cases, and a few special boxes containing marbles and other native geological specimens of exceptional beauty and rarity. In a day or two State Mineralogist Hanks will leave this city for New Orleans to superintend the exhibit.

Suicide at Fresno.

FRESNO, Cal., Feb. 27.—Georgia Maria Hansen, a native of Denmark, aged 34 years, unmarried, committed suicide at the Fresno colony, to-day, by hanging herself. She was engaged as a domestic in the family of L. Canderson and was complaining of not feeling well. During the morning she fastened a rope to a beam in the barn, got on a barrel and put a double hitch about her neck, and then jumped from the barrel, accomplishing her death.

A New Line of Steamers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—It is rumored that the Atlantic and Pacific Railway will put on a line of steamers between San Diego and this port until they have made connection by rail with this city.

NELLIE BOYD DRAMATIC COMPANY.—The presentation, last evening, of the sensational French drama, Article 47, showed the above company to good advantage; giving Miss Boyd, in particular, full opportunity as "Cora" for the harrowing business which seems to be her favorite "hold." Her acting in the mad scene was conscientious, at all events, and in some points creditable. As usual, Mr. Roberts received favorable notice. This afternoon, Claire and the Forge Master will be presented at a "bon-bon" matinee; and this evening the clever comedy Solomon Isaacs.

OLD BALLAD CONCERT.—The "Old Ballad Concert" given at Armory Hall, last night, for the benefit of Los Angeles Council No. 1, Royal Templars of Temperance, was a success both as an entertainment and as a benefit. About 400 people enjoyed the generous programme, which was presented as announced, with the omission of Mr. Barnes's recitation, and the substitution of a guitar solo by Prof. Arevalo for the cornet solo of Mr. Martin. The uniformed chorus from the Eagle Corps consisted of Sergeant Lamp; Privates J. W. Lancaster and C. S. Merrill; and Captain M. L. Starin; while H. Wiatt, of the Eagle Corps band, acted as musician for the song rendered by Mrs. Beeson and the chorus. The audience was appreciative as well as large, and gave liberal tokens of pleasure.

The Tramp Nuisance and Its Remedy.

It is a well-proved precept that "an ounce of prevention is worth pounds of cure." This is reasonable, though the opposite precept is generally more followed, to-wit: "Penny wise and a pound of foolish." Alarm is not heeded until its arrival and entrance to our very doors. "Take care of to-day and give no thought about the morrow" is the rule that a large majority follow. Who think of regulating their diet until the system is fouled with corrupt secretions and fever has prostrated the body and deranged the brain? Then the physician is called to cure what forethought might have prevented, what prudence for a moment could have stayed. Our social system is charged with foulness that few presume to know or care to understand. The actuating principle with each and nearly every one is "well" to me and God take care of the rest. Now, is this selfish principle right, and does it not practically throw out a chilling want upon the pathway of the less favored, or who from circumstances have a more thorny route of travel? When we see fellow-creatures falling daily by the side of us from an epidemic, don't we say that there is something wrong in the natural surroundings, or this would not be so? So it is socially. Scares of persons are daily walking in our midst, some with honest hearts and kindly impulses, and some that are not gnawed, with the pangs of hunger, cold for the want of comfortable clothing. Cheerless are the rays that fall upon their faces at the dawn of day, and more dispairing still at the falling of night's sable curtain—the considerate and philanthropic view the scene with a conviction that there is a wrong somewhere or this would not be so. Now, is not the earth fruitful enough and abundant enough in its fruitfulness to supply each and every one's necessities? Then, if so, why not abate this misery that is so alarmingly on the increase—a person that is not willing but able to stir the soil and use the hoe is not worthy of life, and, like ant and bee drones, should be thrust out—how are we to distinguish the unfortunate? They are not all bad, neither are they all good. The way to find out the difference is to prove them. Now, if Los Angeles county had a farm of 1000 acres where every unfortunate could be immediately provided with work and as a recompense the county would supply their necessities, would not very many avail themselves of it until they could do better? This method would work well, I believe, both for the deserving, indigent and for the county. Is would be a place where those needing reliable help could find it, for there would be the proof well demonstrated if those seeking honest employment were worthy and sincere in their pretentions. It would divide what are called the tramp-class into two divisions—the honest and vicious. The latter would be treated according to their deserts, is it not criminal to allow fellow beings, though of good solid constitutions, to suffer for the necessaries of life in a land like this, where cereals and animal food, though it be caught from the sea, is abundantly plentiful? And is it not a crime upon society to allow the vicious to prey upon the generous and philanthropic citizens? There is a way out of this vexatious trouble that meets us now at every step, and the "way" should be adopted without delay. PRO BONO.

Alternates—P. H. McGrew of Oakland; Clark E. Boys, San Francisco; Ed. A. Weed, Los Angeles; J. L. Lyon, Oakland.

A resolution was adopted, asking the National Encampment to request Congress to pass an act protecting the G. A. R. badge, similar to that passed by the Legislature of New York, but which was vetoed by Governor Cleveland.

It was decided to hold the 1886 encampment at Sacramento, the Los Angeles delegation failing to secure the plum. Commander Warfield has appointed W. R. Smedberg Assistant Adjutant General, Banquets, entertainments, dances and a camp-fire filled out the programme of the encampment.
